Nada Dada's 9th Year - The Winter Art Show

[Reno, January 2015] - The artist lead, motel room gallery, movement!

Profoundly personal, the Nada Dada movement inspires artists to display their work to walk-in traffic in motel rooms. All confirmed artists this winter are in the Morris Burner Hotel where we will celebrate each room and the Morris's first year. Nada Gras has grown into a carnival of music and art to delight patrons In the tradition of Mardi Gras. Some artists sell their work and others display just to share ideas.

"Get a room, make a show". That's the basics of it. There are no organizers, no leaders, nobody will book a room for you, nobody will jury your work and nobody will hold your hand. You will succeed or you will fail based on your efforts, your work or your actions. There are plenty of people who can offer advice and suggestions, and this page is one place to start.
